SpareBank 1 SR-Bank is a Norwegian regional savings bank rated A2 / A-

SpareBank 1 SR-Bank in brief

- · SR-Bank is a regional commercial bank in Norway, primarily focused on savings and mortgages
- It operates as a stand-alone company but is part of the country wide SpareBank 1 Alliance, which includes six additional regional banks that joined forces in 1996 to create economies-ofscale related to expenses, IT solutions, marketing and branding
- SR-Bank benefits from strong brand recognition and local presence in the South west part of Norway, where it enjoys a leading 38 % market share. In addition, growth strategies in the adjacent Hordaland and Agder counties have been deployed
- The bank compresses three divisions: capital markets, retail market and corporate market, as well as three fully owned subsidiaries that focus solely on real estate brokerage, asset management and lease financing. Also, it partly owns SpareBank 1 Boligkreditt and SpareBank 1 Naeringskreditt, which issue covered bonds
- SR-Bank is rated A2/A- for the long-term rating and P-1/F2 for the short-term rating by Moody's and Fitch

SR-Bank operates in the most expanding region of one of Europe's strongest economies

Market characteristics

- The Norwegian economy ranks second in Europe measured by GDP per capita, and it has recently performed significantly better than both the Euro area as a whole and its neighbouring Nordic peers
- Counties Rogaland, Hogaland and Agder are all part of the south-west region, which is the country's most expansive region in terms of population. The area contains 76% of the country's registered companies, which accounts for 75% of the country's total corporate revenues
- The Norwegian oil industry, centred in Stavanger, constitutes the backbone of the region's strong economy and significant growth is anticipated in the region as a result of a sonsecutive oil & gass discoveries
- The region is further stimulated by a number of government infrastructure investments, which are planned to reach 100 - 150 BNOK within the next ten years
